TV Set Installed In SU Lounge

Hey kids! You don't have to go downtown to watch television any more. The Student Union lounge has a 21-inch RCA set in operation until 10:30 p.m. during the week and until midnight on dance nights.

The set was approved by Student Union Executive committee last week. The RCA set is not permanent. Other sets will be tried out for a short period and the students can help pick the set they desire for the lounge.

At present the only television station which can be picked up is one from Spokane, but the Missoula station will be in operation this summer.

Shoeshines, Shaves, Dreamy Dates Available at Auction, Thursday

BY JOAN HARBOLT

Going... going... but not yet gone are the numerous services being offered at the Chinese auction in the Copper room of the Student Union at 7:30 p.m. Thursday for the benefit of WUS.

This sacrificial meal drive was arranged by Jim Ryan, Missoula, and Kay Hudson, Rapid City, S. D., co-chairmen in charge of the living groups for the WUS drive.

Proposed Changes For Constitution Submitted to C-B

Larry Gaughan, Missoula, chairman of the constitutional revisions committee, plans to present two broad alterations at the regular Central board meeting this week.

They are intended to "clear up the constitution for Central board" and give jurisdiction to proceed with the proposed governmental reorganization plan and honor council.

The first change will give Central board additional power to interpret the constitution more "liberally" as far as enacting by-laws. The second will enlarge the duties of the constitutional revisions committee to cover recommendations for reorganizing the government.

Six other revisions are also planned for more efficient organization of the present student. These changes have been discussed in Central board before and are being put into final form by the revisions committee.

WUS GETS $75 FIRST DAY

The first day's total for the WUS drive was $75. This came from individual donations, group donations, dance tickets, and donations on the car.

On the Outside . . .

Millions Asked for Great Falls Base

Montana Senator Mike Mansfield . . . says the Air Force has advised him that they are requesting Congress to authorize four million, 817 thousand dollars for construction work at the Great Falls air base.

Secretary of State Dulles . . . has asked Britain, France, Australia, New Zealand and other nations to join the United States in a public warning to Communist China against open aggression in Indo-China and southeast Asia. Officials say the proposed warning is one of several possible methods of "united action" in Asia.

Samuel Sears avoided a show-down . . . by handing in his resignation yesterday as special counsel for the hearings on Senator McCarthy's dispute with army officials. Sears has been charged with being impartial. He called it a "grievous misunderstanding."

Sharp dip in sales . . . have been reported in sales during March by the nation's two largest mail order houses. Montgomery Ward and Sears Roebuck say at Chicago their sales were down 12 and 22 per cent compared to the same month last year.

The NATO treaty council blasted . . . its central European commander, Marshal Alphonse Juin, for words, "contrary to the explicit and repeated declaration of NATO policy." Juin has publicly declared opposition to the European army plan.

Delegates Hear Nash At Pullman Meeting

Everybody has a world view, according to Dr. Arnold Nash, national religious leader and educator, who spoke at the seventh annual Northwest Conference on Religion and Higher Education in Pullman, Wash.

The Rev. Clara Wood, University director of religion, and Herbert Kroeker, professor of economics, attended the conference, held on the Washington State college campus last week end.

Nash explained the need and place of religion on a college campus. He felt that it is not unusual to have religion as the basis of all academic pursuits.

Mrs. Wood served as a member of a panel in one of the conference workshops, discussing campus communication of Christian faith.

Melton Featured Tonight In Concert Series Finale

Famed concert tenor, James Melton, will appear in a concert in the Student Union auditorium at 8:15 p.m. tonight. His program will include early American ballads and folk songs as well as operatic arias for which he is famous.

His appearance tonight will conclude the 1953-54 Missoula Community Concert series, Professor John Lester, concert association president has announced.

Melton began his singing career in 1934 when he teamed with George Gershwin in a nationwide concert tour. His present repertoire includes more than 4,000 numbers.

In 1935 Melton began his operatic career after completion of motion picture productions and radio programs. In this field he has distinguished himself as one of the nation's foremost tenors.

In recent years Melton has starred such radio presentations as "The Ford Sunday Evening Hour," "The Telephone Hour," "The Texaco Star Theater" and the "Harvest of Stars." He has also been a frequent guest on the Ed Sullivan show and the "Firestone Hour," both are television shows. He recently was awarded the "TV Gold Medal Award" for his video appearances.

One of Melton's most famous hobbies is collecting antique automobiles. He now has one of the nation's most valuable collections of old cars.

Penny Drive for WUS Today

"A Mile to WUS" is the theme of the mile of pennies drive which will begin this morning, according to Jim Abbott, Kalspell.

A line of tape from the Student Union toward the oval has been set up for students and professors to lay their pennies on. Signs similar to Burma Shave signs mark the path to the end of the mile. Approximately $71.04 worth of pennies will be needed to fill the mile.

Arrangements have been made with the coke store to give five pennies in change instead of nickels for the entire day.

Rehearsals Underway For All-School Show

Rehearsals in the Student Union auditorium for the operas, "Cavalleria Rusticana" and "I Pagliacci," began Monday evening. The two operas will be presented May 8, 9, 12, and 13 as the All-School show.

At present the principal characters, chorus, and orchestra are rehearsing separately. The chorus will join the principals in the Student Union April 12 and the orchestra April 25.

Pictured above is James Melton, tenor, who will perform tonight for residents and students of Missoula. His repertoire will include folk songs and ballads of early America, and also familiar dramatic arias of France, Italy and Germany.

It Happens Every Year

Budget and Finance committee is in the middle of discussion on budgets proposed by different organizations on campus. As usual most of the organizations need more money, but because of the small ASMSU funds, few of them will succeed in getting it.

Probably the most prominent of the proposed budgets again this year is the Athletic budget. At the present time 48 per cent of the student funds are going to athletics. Last Monday Paul Chumrau, athletic business manager, presented a preliminary budget with a deficit of $39,780. This proposal included an anticipated 48 per cent allocation of student funds again next year.

Why such a deficit? We are not prepared to answer this in full, but the following comparison of student funds going towards athletics at Montana and other Skyline schools may shed a little light on the matter.

This table is figured out on the basis of each student in each school paying $14.40 per year towards athletics. That is what students at Montana pay. According to Chumrau, students in most of the other Skyline schools pay more than $14.40 per year, despite their larger enrollments.

Enrollment	Student Allocation (on basis of $14.40 per student)	More Than Montana
Utah	8,989	$129,441.60
BYU	6,396	92,102.40
Denver	6,000	86,400.00
New Mexico	4,086	58,838.40
Utah State	3,700	53,280.00
Colorado A&M	3,626	52,214.00
Wyoming	2,400	34,560.00
Montana	1,800*	25,920.00

Montana is competing in a class with other schools that are receiving larger allocations from student funds. That is part of the reason for such a deficit in our athletic budget.

How is the deficit going to be made up? Let's look at the question from both sides. Indications are that students do not favor giving athletics a larger percentage of the budget. The students shouldn't be asked to give a larger per cent to athletics. There are other organizations on campus that must be supported.

On the other hand, the athletic department needs more money. Athletic officials know that it is almost impossible to get a larger out of student funds. They've had deficits before and have managed to survive.

Although it has been unsuccessful in the past, we feel that the deficit could be made up by soliciting contributions from MSU alumni around the state. It's done successfully in other states. What's the matter with Montana?—B.N.

Campus NEWS VIEWS

BY WALLY O'DONNELL

Today is the last day to file for ASMSU and class government positions and there are still no candidates for the position of ASMSU secretary. This office is a very important post in student government and should attract several candidates. Let's get those petitions in!

Just a little reminder. The election on Aber day will include not only ASMSU offices, but also Store Board delegates and officers for the sophomore, junior, and senior classes. Some of these positions have not been touched by potential candidates. Among those with no petitions in are the president and secretary-treasurer of the senior class and vice-president of the junior class. Other positions have only one candidate filing. Surely there is more interest in student government than this.

Budget and Finance committee is in the midst of fighting out the budget appropriations for next year. One of these encounters brought out the inadequacy of our present form of student committees. At the meeting on Monday, with the Publicity-Travel committee, one of its members told Finance board, "The publicity-travel committee is not quite sure what it is supposed to be doing." Perhaps if we get the director of student affairs which has been proposed in Central board we can eliminate those committees which aren't quite sure of their jobs.

Education School Sends Three to Spokane Meet

Three members of the Education school faculty, Dr. Walter Ames, Dr. John Staehle, and Dr. James Short, will attend the Inland Empire Education association meeting this week in Spokane.

Ames, professor of education, will conduct an open house for alumni and persons interested in placement in Montana.

Staehle, assistant professor, is the Kellogg foundation representative from this area. Short, also an assistant professor in the School of Education, is chairman for the association for student teaching program.

Public Will Hear Memorial Organ

When Mrs. Florence M. Smith, professor of music, presents an organ recital Friday at 8:15 p.m., it will be the first time that the memorial organ in the Recital hall of the School of Music will be heard in public.

The installation of the organ was completed in March. The organ, which was built especially for the Recital hall, was constructed by the M. P. Moller company of Hagerstown, Md. It was designed by LaVon Maesch who will present the dedication recital July 21.

The uncovered pipes of the organ serve as a new background for the Recital hall, formerly a vacant space covered by a grill was behind the stage. The space has been filled with symmetrically arranged pipes ranging from a few inches to 16 feet high. The organ has 2,329 pipes of which 870 are visible.

In many ways an organ can be compared to a symphony orchestra in that different tonal qualities, such as reeds, flutes, horns, chimes, and stringed instruments are available to the organist. The memorial organ has 40 such tonal qualities.

The MSU Endowment foundation and the Music School foundation are handling the donation.

Many of the freshmen scheduled to compete Saturday compiled brilliant high school marks. Connie Orr, Missoula, high scorer in last year's Interscholastic, will perform in the low and high hurdles and in the broad jump; Jim Rowland, Billings, Class A 440-yard champ, in the discus, shot and quarter-mile; Ted Nyquist, Boulder, Class B half-mile winner, in the mile and half-mile; Ray Howard, Helena, who tied for Class A high-jump honors, in the low and high hurdles and in the high jump; and Tom Roe, Phillipsburg, the top Class B pole vaulter, in the high jump and pole vault.

Grizzlies to Get Scrimmage Today

Grizzly gridmen completed another windy spring football practice Tuesday highlighted by blocking drills and dummy scrimmage. "Wednesday we will scrimmage for about an hour," Coach Eddie Chinske said after practice. "We still haven't learned our offensive plays well enough," Chinske commented. "Until we do, our offense will be handicapped in scrimmage."

Competition for starting backfield slots is keen with Dale Shupe, Dick Imer and Billy Gue leading contenders for halfback positions and Curt Milne, Don Bissel and Earl Shaw alternating at fullback.

Scribe Picks SN To Cop I-M Crown

BY CHUCK THOMPSON
Tonight may be the last go-around for the Intramural basketball season.

Sigma Nu, undefeated in tournament play, and Phi Epsilon Kappa, with one defeat, tangle tonight at 7 p.m. on the hardwood of the Men's gym. Should SN win, the double-knockout tourney will be over, but should PEK cop the victory, a final game Thursday night will determine the champion.

SN has managed to reach the finals without a loss, but the overall season record of PEK is better. PEK's record is 12-1 while SN's is 10-2. Since PEK's only loss came at the hands of SN, however, we must favor the boys of 1006 Gerald to beat PEK and take the championship tonight.

PEK has had to travel a long, rough road to make the finals and all due credit should be given to possible the shortest team in the tourney.

Notice to Playoff Team Managers
We would like to ask each of the managers of the playoff teams to make your selections for all-tournament team and turn them in Thursday. Please pick two teams of five men each. Also, please make a separate list of players whose teams did not make the tournament but who deserve special recognition.

Volleyball Starts Tomorrow
Volleyball will begin tomorrow night, according to George Cross, I-M sports director. Team managers are asked to pick up schedules in Cross's office today or tomorrow.

Montana State University's four-man skiing team finished third in the seventh annual Doug Smith Memorial races held Saturday and Sunday on Big Mountain near Whitefish.

Competing against 38 skiers representing teams from Whitefish, Ennis, Missoula, Polson, Spokane, Wash., Montana State college and Kalispell, the MSU team finished second in slalom events and fourth in the downhill. Whitefish won the meet and Ennis finished second ahead of MSU.

For MSU, Lee Robinson finished 9th, Ray Ruana 11th and Dick Solberg 14th in the slalom. In the downhill, Ruana placed 7th, Solberg 12th and Robinson 15th.

Montana will have nearly two months to prepare for track speedsters from Colorado A&M and Colorado university.

Alex Burl, Colorado A&M's speed king, won the 50-yard dash with a time of 5.3 seconds in an indoor meet with Wyoming. This speed equalled the Cowpoke's fieldhouse record for the event.

In the recent Colorado A&M-Colorado U dual meet, Doug Sorrell, Aggie speedster, ran 5.9 seconds in the 50-yard low hurdles, a new Aggie fieldhouse record.

Montana will meet these at the conference in Denver May 28-29.

—O—
Contrast: Track Coach Clarence Robison of Brigham Young will take a couple dozen of his thinclads to Arizona this week, hoping that a pair of meets will be just what the Cougars need to get going.

Track coach Harry Adams of Montana will take his men to the University fieldhouse for conditioning on the clay and sawdust. BYU will be Montana's first conference competition this spring. The schools meet at Provo May 1. BYU has several stalwarts returning this year and they are strongest in the distance and quarter-mile events. The Cats have veteran pole-vaulter Lewis Chatterly back. A winner of the national junior college championship in 1953 with a 13' 2" mark, Chatterly ranks sixth nationally on the NCAA

—O—
Never has so little been sent to do so much. The Grizzly baseball team is going to Utah with a terrific handicap. Utah U, BYU, and Utah State have all had several games to their credit in addition to innumerable practice sessions. The Silvertips face three veteran nines that are nearly in mid-season form already. Batting eyes cannot be developed in the gloom of a fieldhouse nor can pitching arms become effective with only six or eight innings of play. Should the Grizzlies return from this trip with a couple of wins it will be truly amazing and a tribute to the ability and spirit of the Montana ballplayers.

Women's Softball Begins When Spring Hits Campus

When spring finally comes to the campus, the first women's softball games will match the Kappa Alpha Thetas against the Delta Gammas while Corbin hall will play the Alpha Phis.

Games will start promptly at 4 p.m. each day as soon as it is warm enough to play.

Each team must come equipped with a rule book. If there are less than nine team members present, the game will be forfeited to the opposing team, according to WRA officials.

'On the Job' Experience To Be Gained This Spring By Journalism Students

Journalism students at MSU will get "on the job" experience this spring by taking over, for a brief time, publication of four of the state's newspapers, according to James L. C. Ford, dean of the journalism school.

For the seventh consecutive year a group of students will travel to Lewistown where they will replace the regular staff members of the Daily News for two days. According to Ken Byerly, publisher, they will handle reporting, editing, photography, and advertising duties for the two issues.

Three weekly newspapers, the Phillips County News, published by J. Russell Larcombe; the Ronan Pioneer, published by Ray Loman, and the Terry Tribune, published by Dick MacDougall, are inviting student groups to take over publication for one week.

A fifth group from the journalism school will go to Kalispell May 6 to 8 to conduct a reader-interest survey in cooperation with the Daily Inter Lake, according to Dean Ford, who will direct the survey.

Journalism majors slated to make the Lewistown trip April 20-23 will be headed by Bob Chesnover, Bozeman, who will be editor. Others will include Shirley DeForth, Glendive; Winnie Dinn and Dorothy Reeves, both of Butte; Muriel Griffin and Frank Milburn, both of Missoula; Art Mathison, Deer Lodge; Pat O'Hare, Stevensville; Jim Tutwiler, Drummond; and Dan Zenk, Tampico.

Bob Newlin, Lewistown, will be editor and will be assisted by Joan Brooks, St. Ignatius, and Bill Jones, Miles City, at Malta from April 18 to 23, where they will publish the Phillips County News. They will be the guests of the Malta Kiwanis club the evening of April 20.

Senior Chosen State Delegate

David Leuthold, Molt, senior in political science at MSU, is one of the two Montana rural young people who will go to Europe this summer as international farm youth exchange delegates, according to Paul J. Moore, state 4-H club leader.

Leuthold will go to France, and Frances Brink, senior at Montana State college, will go to Switzerland. Leuthold will report in Washington, D. C., June 13 for orientation and will sail June 19.

Leuthold has been in 4-H club work for 13 years, has presented a number of demonstrations, and has received both state and national honors for his work. At MSU he is a member of the SAE fraternity and Silent Sentinel.

In speaking of his reasons for wanting to take part in the IFYE program, Leuthold said, "A nation will be more likely to respect the rights and desires of a neighbor if the people understand and recognize the needs of this neighbor. Understanding cannot be secured by two people who do not know or respect each other."

Litho Press Given Art Department

The addition of a lithograph press to the art department at MSU may eventually lead to a complete course taught in lithography, according to Prof. A. F. Arnold, chairman of the department of fine arts.

The press was received as a gift from Alex Warden, publisher of the Great Falls Tribune, who contributed the press after learning that the university had no facilities for instruction in lithography in the field of art.

Next year the press will be used in one of the graphic art courses. The lithographic process by which a greasy substance is put on stone, ink applied, and a print taken from the face of the stone, is a relatively recent reproduction process in the field of art, compared to etching and engraving.

The stone used for the process is very difficult to obtain, as this special type of stone has gone off the commercial market. The first stones made available to the art department came from B. J. Warren of the Spokane Lithographing Co.

Faculty Writings Chosen for 'Bar 3' Dutton Publication

Two faculty members have had stories selected for publication in "Bar-3 Roundup of Best Western Stories," released recently by E. P. Dutton and company, New York.

Walter Van Tilburg Clark, assistant professor of English and Dorothy Johnson, assistant professor of journalism, are authors of two of the eleven stories included.

This is the third in a series of annual anthologies by Scott Meredith, and all three have included short stories by Miss Johnson, whose book, "Indian Country," was published last year. Clark's story, "The Pretender," is his first to be included in the Meredith roundup.

Clark is the author of the well-known novel, "The Oxbow Incident," and winner of an O. Henry short story award. His story selected for the anthology is a study of a man who is destroyed by fear, and it originally appeared in Atlantic Monthly.

Miss Johnson, secretary of the Montana State Press association, has had numerous stories published in Colliers, Argosy, Cosmopolitan, and the Saturday Evening Post. "Journey to the Fort," her story in the roundup, deals with the ransom and return of a white woman who had been a Sioux captive.

When you come right down to it, you smoke for one simple reason...enjoyment. And smoking enjoyment is all a matter of taste. Yes, taste is what counts in a cigarette. And Luckies taste better.

Two facts explain why Luckies taste better. First, L.S./M.F.T.—Lucky Strike means fine tobacco...light, mild, good-tasting tobacco. Second, Luckies are actually made better to taste better...always round, firm, fully packed to draw freely and smoke evenly.

So, for the enjoyment you get from better taste, and only from better taste, Be Happy—Go Lucky. Get a pack or a carton of better-tasting Luckies today.

My roommate was a grouchy soul—
No person could be meaner;
But Luckies made him change his tune—
They're smoother, fresher, cleaner!
